Loch Katrine is situated to the west of the Trossachs, and measures 8 miles long by an average width of three-quarters of a mile. It is not only famous for its beauty, but also from its association with Scott's "Lady of the Lake." Ellen's Isle, on Loch Katrine, is so named after Ellen Douglas, who lived with her father, the "Douglas" of the poem, near the Loch. The water supply of Glasgow is derived from this lake.
